Job Description- Tech Manager

EnergyTech Ventures (ETV) JV of Indus Net Technologies and E-Cube Energy is looking to hire Tech Manager with skills and background as given below.

ETV is an emerging player in the Energy Analytics space providing host of managed services/ products to businesses, helping them leverage their data assets, enabling them to report, assess and manage their Energy Productivity.

For more details on EnergyTech Ventures you can visit us at www.entechventures.com.

Experience range - 3 to 4 years, Prior experience of working in Energy Analytics or similar fields would be an added advantage.

Educational qualification – Bachelor's degree in computer technology or similar field.

Location - Kolkata

Responsibilities:

- Has to handle teams
- Estimate project budgets
- Schedule project timeline
- Arranging for resources and also help in solving technical problems
- Project planning
- Setting targets and deliverables
- Making decisions and bringing in business

Skills required:

- Should have worked on IoT projects, being involved in ideating and development stages of the projects.
- Should have hands on experience of coding , data base management etc.
- Should have done client facing roles
- Should have experience in troubleshooting, software development, processes and ability to understand and implement client requirements.
- Should possess good knowledge of different software systems, client/server architectures and various compatibility requirements

Let us learn about you! Apply today at career@entechventures.com